

Social Utility Trust: First Steps

Community actors

1

Settlor(s)

2

Original trustees
(initial trustees)

3

Later trustees

4

Users, affected persons and/or contributors

1. Research

Learn about and design the project (including business model, funding, and community engagement)

Transfer asset to SUT

Appropriate an asset to a purpose in the public interest.

May be involved at different times in the life of the SUT

It takes a number of people playing different roles at various times to create and implement a social utility trust (SUT). This diagram provides a general idea of how an SUT works. Each SUT must adapt the steps to its circumstances and objectives.

